MACKINAC ISLAND

About The INN At STONECLIFFE

Your special day has finally come! Close your eyes and imagine a beautiful estate with the charm of the early 1900s complimented with the amenities you have come to love in today's modern world. Pause and pay attention, there are no cars, just the noises emanating from the waterway, guests engaged in conversation and merriment, along with the rhythmic clip-clop of a horse-drawn carriage. You are on Mackinac Island in Northern Michigan. A horse-drawn carriage will pick you up from the boat dock and carry you through the quaint town to the Inn at Stonecliffe.

You open your eyes and you have stepped back in time. Be prepared to indulge in the fun and activities of days gone by while strolling the coastline, playing some golf, or having a romantic moment by the pool. The smell of BBQ is in the air. There is so much to see and do with family and friends who are coming to share your special day.

Getting to Mackinac Island

◆ FLYING IN

Many guests enjoy flying directly to Mackinac Island Airport. This is a small 3,500-foot lighted, paved runway capable of accommodating private and charter aircraft. Some guests fly to the larger airports and transfer to Fresh Air Aviation, operating out of St. Ignace. They offer daily flights directly to the island in lieu of taking the ferry ride.

Pellston Regional Airport (PLN) and Chippewa County International Airport (CIU) are the two closest commercial airports and are both 35 minutes from the ferry docks. Some guests find it more convenient to travel from Cherry Capital Airport (TVC), located about 2.5 hours south in Traverse City.

FROM THE FERRY

- ◆ Passage to Mackinac Island is provided by two ferry boat lines, which provide service from May to October. The boats operate from early morning until early evening in the peak season. They run until 9 or 10 pm, with frequent crossings throughout the day.

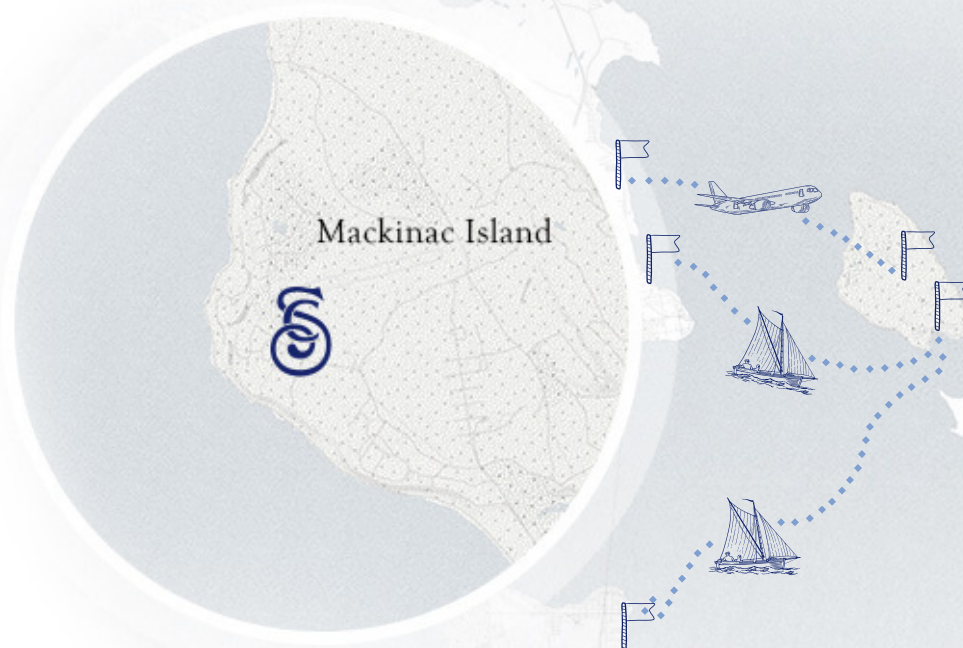

All ferry boat lines operate from Mackinaw City and St. Ignace, Michigan. Luggage transfer is simple and convenient, with assistance on both the mainland and Mackinac Island. Please allow three hours for luggage transfer.

PARKING

- ◆ As you may know, cars are not allowed on the island. Ample parking is available at all mainland ferry docks. Rates depend on the company and parking location.

TRANSPORTATION

- ◆ Once you arrive on the island, you will enjoy a horse-drawn carriage shuttle ride to The Inn at Stonecliffe for a small fee (cash only).

The Experience

This is an intimate, breathtaking love story everyone will want to experience with you at the stately, preserved, and renovated Inn at Stonecliffe. Pinch yourself!
