HELLO, I'M BECCA

After organizing my own wedding in Austin, Texas in 2012, I was entranced by the boundless possibilities of wedding color schemes, the art of crafting fragrant floral arrangements, orchestrating sweet and subtle surprises, and weaving together all the intricate elements required to create a memorable and joyful celebration. As a newlywed myself, my passion for these endeavors crystallized into a clear goal: to become a wedding planner. I envisioned a future where I could constantly engage with an industry that is ever-evolving, one that centers around the celebration of love and commitment.

From this vision, Veils of Vail was born, and I embarked on my journey as a wedding and event planner. It brings me immense joy and a sense of honor to establish profound connections with my clients on numerous levels and to witness their unique love stories unfold before my eyes. Veils of Vail is a member of WIPA - Wedding International Professionals Association. I will be serving on the WIPA Board for 2024 as the Director of Sponsorship.

CREATING EXPERIENCES WRAPPED IN LOVE

With 10+ years of wedding and event planning expertise, I will always go above and beyond for our clients, providing exceptional service, attention to detail, and strive to make every step of the wedding planning process captivating and authentically yours from start to finish.

A photograph of a wedding ceremony setup on a golf course. Two tall, narrow pillars of white and pink roses stand on a green lawn. White wicker chairs are arranged in rows on either side of the pillars. A path of white rose petals leads from the foreground towards the pillars. In the background, there is a lush green golf course, a line of trees, and rolling hills under a cloudy sky.
