Frequently Asked Questions

HERE ARE SOME FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS WE GET ABOUT THE PLANNING PROCESS:

When should I hire a wedding planner?

We'd love to start working with you at any point in the process. However, our hope is to start at the very beginning with our couples. This allows us to suggest the right venue and vendors based on your desired wedding budget and vision. This also helps us relieve the stress of wedding planning from day one by guiding you throughout the planning process therefore, allowing you to put the focus back on enjoying the time you are engaged. With that being said, we're happy to assist you whenever you need support in your wedding planning journey.

Can I hire you if I've already hired some of my vendors?

Of course! We're happy to pick up where you left off. We can assist you in finding and booking vendors that match your aesthetic, personality and budget. and coordinate with any of your current vendors to ensure no detail is unaccounted for as your wedding vision comes to life.

What level of support is right for me?

The best way to determine what level of support is right for you is by reaching out to us to schedule a complimentary consultation. Once we learn more about your vision, how involved you desire to be in the planning process, and more about the logistics of your event we can suggest the best option for you. We'd also be happy to customize a package based on your event needs.

What is the payment structure for your packages?

A retainer of 50% of the service price is due upon signing the contract to secure your date. The other 50% of your payment is due two weeks prior to the wedding date. We are open to creating payment plans if needed.

What happens if I hire you for one package but realize I need more support?

You're welcome to increase the level of support at any point and upgrade to a more comprehensive service if you realize that you require more assistance with the planning process. If you come to that conclusion we will create an addendum to your contract to include the level of service you are needing. Along with this we will add the difference of the upgrade to your final balance or create a payment plan which includes what is owed.

How much access do I get to you as my planner?

Our goal is to be there for you throughout the entire process. You are able to schedule meetings and phone calls as needed, although we will be regularly checking in to ensure that everything is going smoothly, and no issues arise regardless of the service you select. We also can set up recurrent weekly or bi-weekly meetings with you during the planning phase if you prefer. In order to provide you, and our other clients, with the best level of service, we have guidelines in place to streamline the communication process. This is to ensure whenever you reach out we can respond with our full attention and make note of any important details mentioned during our conversation.

If you have any other questions about the planning process, please don't hesitate to reach out to us and ask!

Let's get to know each other!

The planning process starts with our consultation meeting where you'll tell us all about the wedding plans you've made so far, what your wedding budget is, and what you envision for your big day. Then we will ask you a series of questions to learn what your pain points are, and how much guidance you're looking for.

From there, we will let you know how we can help make the planning journey more enjoyable for you and your fiancé.
