

The Commons

Rentals & Partnerships

Introduction

The Commons is a community space in the heart of Hayes Valley dedicated to deeply exploring ourselves and the world, together.

We host community events to discover, heal, expand, and actualize; bringing together world-class practitioners and community-created programming across every spiritual tradition, professional industry, academic department to push the boundaries of our collective understanding.

We're now opening our doors and space to the entire San Francisco community to use our home for your own events & programming.
