We work tirelessly to ensure that our clients can relax and enjoy their big day while we take care of the details. Our team is dedicated to bringing each couple's unique vision to life. We believe that every wedding should capture the essence of the couple's love story, and we are committed to making that happen for all of our clients.

"Not only is Carissa incredibly gifted in organization, vision building, design, communication and execution, she is just a genuinely kind person. She understood the balance of helping our vision come true while also gently pushing us in another direction if needed. Our ethereal Malibu wedding was everything we could have wanted and more! We were amazed how flawlessly everything flowed, which rarely happens at weddings, and we owe it all to Carissa and her team. Having a wedding coordinator with her level of expertise, passion and attention to detail is worth every penny. We will forever be grateful."
