"I got the pleasure to have Mandi Roach photograph my wedding! I couldn't have asked for a sweeter individual be a part of my big day who you can tell genuinely cares for and loves what she does. She took the time to make sure she knew what was important to me when it came to capturing such an important day of mine and she did not disappoint! Her turn around time for receiving the photos are the quickest I've experienced with any photographer and the photos are beautiful and of great quality! I wouldn't hesitate using her services again in the future!"

ABBY CAUSEY

A little bit about my story....

Ever get lost flipping through old photo albums? As a kid, I could spend hours doing just that. Those pictures weren't just images on paper; they were portals to different times and places, filled with younger versions of the people I loved. I'd pore over them, soaking in the details - the worn patterns on a favorite sweater, the way sunlight danced in someone's hair, the emotions etched on faces.

High school was a rough time for me, one I couldn't quite explain with words. Art became my outlet, a way to express the jumble of feelings I didn't know how to voice. So it wasn't a surprise that I gravitated towards every art class available. Then, junior year, I stumbled into photojournalism. That class, with its focus on capturing fleeting moments and the magic of developing film, changed everything.

The year 2000 was a big one. My first child was on the way, and I knew I never wanted to miss a single gurgle or giggle. That's when I invested in my first fancy camera, a Nikon D90. Soon enough, I was taking portraits for friends, and what started as a hobby blossomed into a passion. I wasn't just capturing photos; I was bottling up feelings, vibes, snippets of stories. As I shared my work, more and more people started asking me to capture their special moments.

"I still THANK GOD that I managed it without completely making a mess of their images."

In 2014, I decided to focus on family and newborn photography. Weddings? No way! The pressure seemed insane. But life, as it does, had other plans. A friend recommended me to a lovely couple planning a wedding on a tight timeline. They trusted me to capture their big day, and let me tell you, I said a silent prayer every step of the way. (Let's just say I'm eternally grateful nothing went horribly wrong!)

Looking back, I realize just how unprepared I was. My camera was decent, but nothing fancy, and my wedding knowledge was nonexistent. Honestly, the fact that everything went smoothly, that the weather cooperated, that the couple was amazing, and well, let's just say, I still thank God that I managed it without completely making a mess of their images. But that one wedding was all it took. I was hooked. From that moment on, I poured my heart and soul into becoming a wedding photographer.

Fast forward to today, and there's barely anything more fulfilling than capturing the connection between people. I tear up every single time: a mama helping her daughter into her gown, a dad seeing his little girl all grown up, the raw emotion of handwritten vows, the laughter-filled toasts. This isn't just a job for me; it's a privilege to be a part of these incredibly personal celebrations. I go above and beyond because my couples deserve nothing less than the absolute best on their wedding day.

Looking back at my journey, it feels like the pieces fell into place perfectly. Maybe I wouldn't have had the courage to chase this dream on my own, but somehow, it landed right in my lap. It wasn't always easy, but every tear, every doubt, has been worth it.

My Approach

Here is a bit about the approach that I take, and the experience you're about to have with me...

My promise is that I will always do my best work, and I will always tell your story in a way that is unique and special to you.

On the wedding day, I will engage with you, your family and friends to capture your most precious, intimate moments together. I use a mix of both candid and styled photos to tell the complete story of your day. Ultimately, however, my mission is to photograph people as authentically as possible. That might mean stepping back and letting the honest, real moments unfold with little to no direction from me. I do not view wedding days as a magazine photoshoot -- they're not about industry trends and Instagram likes; they are about the unique love between two people

Kind Words

If I could give more than 5 stars, I would! I found Mandi on Instagram while searching for Houston area wedding photographers and instantly fell in love with her style. We had an intro meeting after connecting where Mandi and I got to know one another and share visions -- from that moment, I fell in love with her personality and overall disposition. From then and throughout the wedding, Mandi always went above and beyond the call of duty for a photographer. She was a friend, encourager, nerve calmer, and so much more. She worked closely with me to ensure every detail was thought through and that I had peace of mind every step of the way. On my wedding day, she even asked if there was anything I needed from the store that I may have forgotten -- how sweet! My husband and I absolutely loved working with her throughout the wedding. She made us feel comfortable and beautiful! We were blown away with our photos which were delivered within only a few weeks. We cannot wait to blow a few up to hang in our home! Mandi will forever be our go-to photographer for all of life's events!! If you're looking for a solid photographer, go with Mandi!!!

How it all happens...

1 — Let's meet on Zoom!

I tend to require a face-to-face meeting, to ensure that we are a good fit for one another. It's also a good opportunity to ask any questions you have.

Plus, I want you to be 100% confident in your decision to book with me..

3 —The planning process..

I'll send you my wedding guide and will help you every step of the way. We will really start digging into the planning 60-90 days before the wedding, but I'm always available to assist with anything you may need..

5 — Previews within 48 hrs!

I know you're excited to share images of your day with those that couldn't be there, so I try to turnaround a handful of images between 24-48 hours after the wedding day.

2 — Secure your date!

Let's make it official! We'll execute a contract and process the initial payment.

4 — It's WEDDING DAY!

I will arrive early, hug on you a little, and then start creating magic!

6 — Final gallery delivery.

Grab some takeout, your favorite beverage and make it a whole thing. Sit down and view your wedding gallery together. And don't forget the tissue.

It's that easy.
And I'll be there for ya every step of the way!

“

Finding a photographer for my wedding was probably THE most important thing to me as I wanted my day and the memories captured beautifully. The first time I spoke with Mandi I knew she was the right photographer for me. She had a personality that automatically makes you feel at peace and calm and her portfolio of work is absolutely gorgeous. She was very attentive to what I wanted for my day and was so easy to communicate with. She made me and my husband feel so comfortable and she was always right there when we needed a picture taken with one of our guests. Our wedding photos turned out even better than I could have imagined and all I can say is if you are a bride looking for an AWESOME photographer Mandi Roach is one of the best I've met.

FAQS

Do you offer payment plans?

Yes! I realize this is an investment so feel free to pay in monthly installments. Final payment is due 2 weeks prior to the wedding day.

When can we expect to receive our photos?

You will receive an online gallery link with all your photos within maximum 4 weeks (oftentimes less depending on the season I photograph your story). This tends to be quicker than other photographers in the area.

Is there a retainer?

To reserve your date, I require a signed contract and a $500 retainer.

How many images can we expect?

I do not limit the amount of images I deliver. However, you can expect a minimum of 40-75 images per hour on average.

Do we need a 2nd shooter?

If your budget allows, I always recommend a second shooter, especially for tight timelines. Two shooters are always better than one for multiple reasons. Aside from more coverage of the day you will also have different perspectives, more images, and we are able to split up and capture different parts of the day at the same time.

I'm not comfortable in front of the camera. Can you help?

Absolutely! From ideas on locations, to what to wear, it's my privilege to help prepare you! Most of my couples tell me they are awkward photo takers, or otherwise nervous about their session, but don't sweat it - I will guide you throughout our time together.

Ready for next steps?

You can...

...schedule a meeting with me!

...or email me with questions!

...or just say, "We're ready to book
right now!"

I'm so excited to hear back from you! My dates and availability books up fast each year, so to avoid missing your date, please schedule a pre-booking meeting with me as early as you can!
