Next Steps

Securing Your Date

The venue & house deposits are due at the time of booking, with signed contract(s). Half payment is due 6 months prior, with the remaining balance due 1 month prior to the event. Please be aware that without a deposit received, we are unable to guarantee your date. Final details with linens and the bar can be adjusted/finalized up until a week prior.

Planning

We have developed a “Portfolio Worksheet” to be completed by you as you plan your Big Day. You may add your details and update your vendors as you secure these details. We will meet with you around a month prior to your wedding date to discuss the design of your event including discussions on decorations, set up, and the timeline. We encourage you to reach out at any point with any questions or for suggestions!

Vendor Selection

We have highlighted favorites on our Preferred Vendor List and are happy to consult with you about them. We do have a $300 fee for any caterer that is not on our preferred list. The caterers on our preferred list have already been vetted and have provided Oakholm Farm Estate all the documentation that is required by the Board of Health in order for us to run our venue. They are in compliance with venue policies and expectations. Any caterers that are not listed on our preferred list require Oakholm Farm Estate to reach out to the vendor for said documentation. Although couples ultimately have the flexibility to choose their caterers, they are a reflection of Oakholm Farm Estate to your guests. Oakholm Farm Estate will work closely with your caterer for a cohesive experience for you and your guests.

Wedding Insurance

We recommend - but do not require - either or both wedding liability and cancellation insurance with coverage of $1M. It should include host liquor liability and list Oakholm Realty, LLC as additional insured. Purchase through homeowner's insurance agent (usually less expensive), or from wedsafe.com or theeventhelper.com, ewedinsurance.com, or Eventsured.com.

Engagement Photos

We would love for you and your photographer to visit for an engagement or pre-wedding photo session. Just send us an email to schedule. There are so many outdoor locations on our farm available for photos.

Your Rehearsal

We allow a 1-hour rehearsal prior to your event. It will be scheduled around booked events with your Day of Coordinator. Rehearsal dinners can be booked if you are renting the house for the weekend or based on availability at the tent/house. Oakholm Brewing Company is also an option for a rehearsal dinner or to extend the party with a welcome party for all guests traveling in. Please contact the brewery at 413-272-9620 or Jesslyn@oakholmbrewing.com.

Your Day of Coordinator from Oakholm Farm Estate

Wedding Day Preparation and Timeline

Prior to the day of the wedding (about a month before), the coordinator meets with the bride and groom to understand their preferences and the plans for the wedding day. The coordinator then works with the wedding planner or bride and groom to build or go over: a wedding day schedule and a list of everyone involved in the wedding and what their roles are. The bride and groom also supply the coordinator with the names and contact information for all of the vendors and list what services are being provided. With this information, she can handle one of the most important day-of coordinator duties: making sure everything goes smoothly.

Before the Wedding

The Day of Coordinator will be at the rehearsal to meet the bridal party and assist in the rehearsal as much or as little as the officiant and the couple would like her to. After the rehearsal she will quickly go over the decor and items brought over by the couple and confirm the layout of the floor plan is as they have requested.

There are a lot of things to oversee and questions to be answered on the day of the wedding. The day-of wedding coordinator handles all of these concerns and makes sure that everything is done on time, starting with the items that must be in place prior to the wedding ceremony. When it comes to decorations, flowers and seating, the coordinator checks in with vendors to see when they plan to come in and set up before the wedding and schedule them if need be. Then she assures that all previous arrangements are organized according to the couple's wishes. She will set up the decor as specified by the couple with her assistant, or oversee things as envisioned by the bride & groom if the job is assigned to someone else.

During the Ceremony

During the ceremony, the day-of-wedding coordinator makes sure that all elements of the service proceed exactly as planned. The coordinator makes sure that the guests are seated correctly and in a timely fashion, that members of the wedding party are directed to their places, and entrances are timed with the music. She also confirms that all props, such as unity candles, are in the proper place, and that the ceremony progresses as scheduled. She will cue the bridal party on when they must proceed to their positions and begin the ceremony.

After the ceremony she will be there to congratulate you with your drink of choice and be sure the catering staff have h'orderves for you. Her assistant will take you and your photographer where you want to be for pictures after the ceremony as well.

At the Reception

Once the ceremony is completed, the day-of-wedding coordinator directs guests to the location of the reception. She makes sure that the caterer and other vendors serve the guests their drinks and food on time. In the event that gifts are brought to the reception, the coordinator arranges for the proper placement of them and makes sure the person assigned by the bride and groom to take home the cards and gifts does so. Final duties may include directing the couple through a receiving line and managing the introductions of the bridal party and bride and groom, collecting the brides bouquet and placing it at her table, as well as, dinner, toasts, special dances and any thank-you announcements (however, that is typically announced by the DJ) and making sure if a shuttle service was lined up that they arrive when they are supposed to.
