Founder, Forever Incredible

My Officiating Journey

The story of Forever Incredible is one deeply rooted in passion and devotion to celebrating love. My journey began on the sunlit shores of St. Pete Beach in 2001, when I had the honor of officiating the wedding of dear friends who chose to elope. In that pivotal moment, I discovered my calling: crafting ceremonies that beautifully reflect the unique love stories of each couple.

For years, my creative pursuits spanned both photography and officiating, allowing me to capture and celebrate life's most meaningful moments. However, in 2017, a car accident altered my path. As I navigated recovery and stepped away from photography, a friend's request to officiate their wedding illuminated a new direction. That opportunity became a turning point, leading me to fully embrace my purpose, —writing and officiating ceremonies that truly honor the essence of love and partnership.

At its core, my work is about connection. It's about creating spaces where emotions flow freely, families unite, and love shines. From intimate elopements to grand celebrations, each ceremony is a carefully crafted, inviting guests to share in the couple's profound joy and commitment.

"I would love for each couple to understand that I genuinely love getting to know them and telling their story, leaving everyone with a truly memorable moment. It makes me so happy to see the couple and all their guests ride the wave of emotion from heartfelt tears to joyful laughter."

~ Carla Doshi
