LIDGERWOOD PAVILION

Located directly on the Hudson riverbanks, Lidgerwood Pavilion captures panoramic views of the water. It sits adjacent to the Lidgerwood crane, one of the Brickyard's most iconic 19th-century structures—lending a sense of scale and history to events in the space.

A 27-foot bar is an indispensable resource for cocktail service and features Hudson Valley craft beers. The industrial simplicity of Lidgerwood's architecture provides a limitless canvas for spectacular events.

TELL US ABOUT YOUR EVENT

We'd love to learn more about your vision for your upcoming event and understand your specific needs. In a brief consultation, we can address any questions about our corporate event packages, check availability, discuss potential accommodations and pricing, and ensure you're confident in moving forward. Following our discussion, you can schedule a personalized tour to experience our event spaces firsthand.

HOLD A DATE

We allow a 2 week courtesy hold, with no deposit required and you will be advised if there is interest in the date with a first right of refusal.

MAKE IT OFFICIAL

Upon receiving your hold-the-date materials, you will have two weeks to review the contract before returning it signed along with your first payment equal to 30% of the venue rental charge.

LET'S START PLANNING

Now that the boring (yet important) items are taken care of, it's on to the fun stuff - planning your event! In the months following, you will begin to receive information from our events team to help coordinate your event. During this time, you'll choose your food and beverage preferences, arrange on property activities for your guests and assign accommodations for those staying onsite for the festivities. Our events team is available to you and your planning team via email or phone appointment to assist in any way we can!
