LOS ANGELES, CA

A PART OF HISTORY

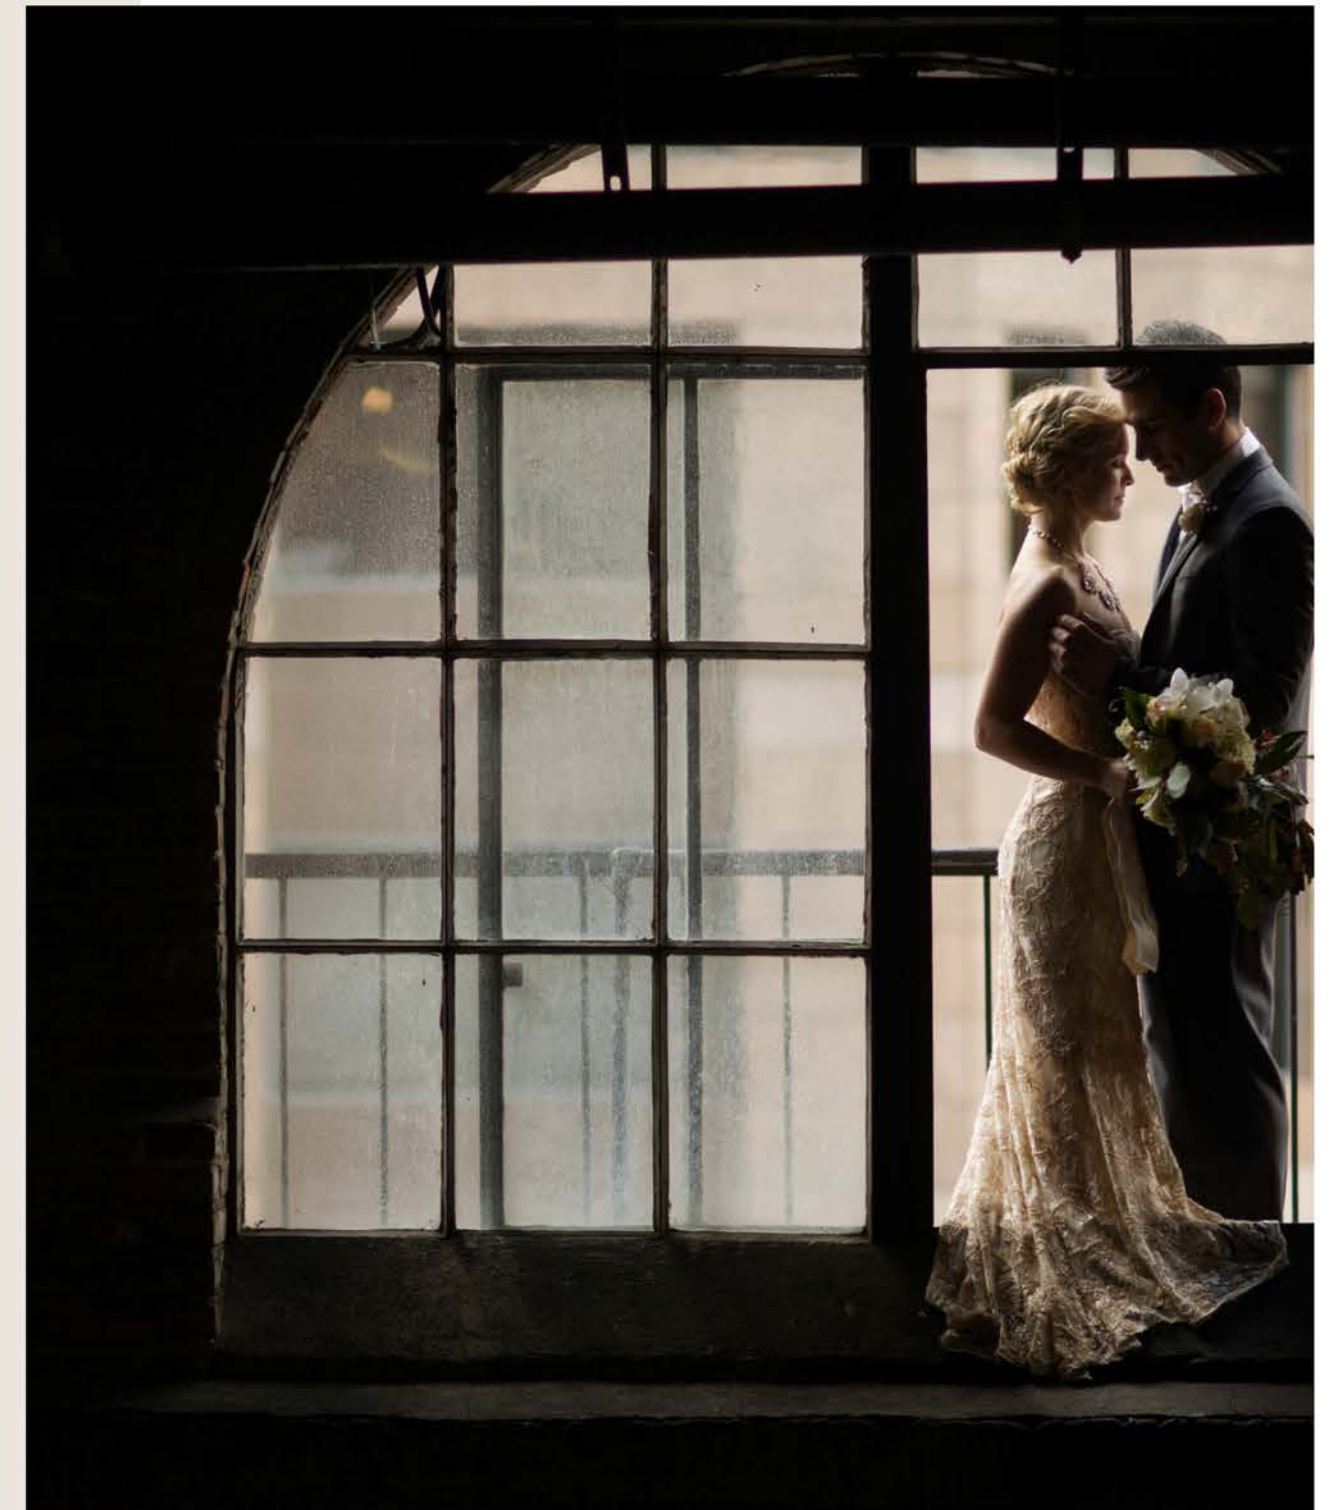

When you choose Jonathan Club for your wedding, you are choosing to be part of a story over 125 years in the making.

The Town Club is a prelude to many of the iconic architectural elements and details for which many historic buildings are renowned. Schultze and Weaver, one of the most distinguished architectural firms of their time, meticulously designed every detail and later went on to design the famous Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York.

The Town Club has a special connection to the history of Los Angeles, with members such as Henry Huntington of The Huntington Library and Harry Chandler, the publisher of the Los Angeles Times, choosing Jonathan Club as their home away from home.

When you enter Jonathan Club you sense this essence; it's that feeling that you've walked into a special place. Your guests will feel it too, and you will have a day full of extraordinary memories.

From one of the most exquisite rooftop views in all of downtown Los Angeles, to a spectacular Florentine Lounge reminiscent of Versailles and a breathtaking Main Dining Room ballroom with a beamed Italian ceiling and opera window, Jonathan Club offers the ideal spaces for your ultimate wedding.
