Service add-on

Our professional servers will arrive at the event location about an hour ahead of the starting time and run all the necessary arrangements, presentation, and preparations tasks.

Throughout your event the servers can either pass the food around or set up (and refill/cleanup) a station area, depending on your preference.

Once the event is over they will take care of the clean up, equipment collection, and trash removal, so you won't have to worry about a thing.
