Frequently Asked Questions

How do I secure my event date and confirm my reservation?

In order to secure your event date our event contract must be signed within 48 hours of receiving the contract. At this time, 50% of the estimated price of your event will be due as a non-refundable deposit. Once we have confirmed both have been received, our event coordinator will send you a confirmation email and begin planning your event!

What does the food and beverage minimum consist of?

The food and beverage minimum goes towards covering the cost of any food and/or beverages spent for your event. If you do not meet the food and beverage minimum for your space, you will be responsible for paying the remainder of the minimum.

What happens if I cancel my event?

if your event is cancelled at anytime after securing your event date the 50% non-refundable deposit will not be refunded. If your event is canceled within 48 hours of the event start time, the full price of your event will be charged to serve as the cancellation fee.

Frequently Asked Questions

Are decorations and/or outside vendors allowed?

Any vendors utilized for your event must be equipped with their own valid form of insurance. Any decorations not provided by Schmooze must be cleaned up by the conclusion of your event time, fees may be charged if decor is not properly removed from the property. We advise against glitter, confetti, and things of this nature in order to avoid fees. Schmooze offers a variety of decor options for your event, inquire with our event coordinator!

When is my final guest count due?

The final guest count for your event is due 14 days prior to your event date. We understand attendance may fluctuate, if guest count is lower than estimated the original quote will stand for payment. If the guest count is higher than estimated, we will do our best to accommodate for the increase and are subject to increase pricing post event.

When do I submit my final food and beverage selections?

Food and beverage options can be found on our Events Menu and final selections are due prior paying the deposit for your event to your event coordinator. We allow slight alterations up to 14 days prior to your event, after this your choices will remain locked in out of respect to our kitchen staff.
