

Weddings at Cedar Lane

Nestled on 6+ wooded acres, Cedar Lane offers a stunning setting for life's most meaningful moments.

Our recently renovated mid-century modern campus features light-filled spaces, floor-to-ceiling windows, and natural design elements that bring the outdoors in.

With flexible spaces and an inclusive spirit, we provide a retreat-like atmosphere where love comes alive.

Cedar Lane Staff

Our team is ready to assist you

When you work with Cedar Lane, our experienced and diverse staff are ready to support you as wedding officiants or accompanist. All weddings require a separate day-of-coordinator.

Reverend Abhi Janamanchi: Cedar Lane's senior minister since 2013, Rev. Abhi is a Hindu-Unitarian Universalist who is deeply engaged in interfaith and justice-centered ministry. As a cornerstone of the Cedar Lane community, he is ready to explore and develop a meaningful ceremony that is reflective of the love you and your partner wish to share.

Reverend Dayna Edwards: As Cedar Lane's Minister of Faith Formation, Rev. Dayna spends her time developing programming for children, youth, and adults with a particular focus on supporting our multifaith and multi-racial community. She regularly oversees wedding ceremonies for the Cedar Lane community and beyond.

Accompanist Jasmin Lee: The lead pianist and organist for Cedar Lane since 2014. Jasmin received her Masters and Doctorate in Piano Performance at the University of Maryland, College Park. She is ready to support you in selecting and refining pieces that speak to your family members legacy and align with your memorial vision.
