OUR HISTORY

Located in the historic former San Diego Police Headquarters in the heart of Seaport Village, our 1,900 sq. ft. gallery has been thoughtfully reimagined into an open-concept art space filled with natural light.

Featuring two stunning skylights and a seamless indoor-outdoor flow with an adjacent patio, the gallery offers a spacious, modern setting ideal for unforgettable events.

With the ability to comfortably host up to 75 guests, it's a place where history, creativity, and celebration come together — just steps away from waterfront dining, boutique shopping, luxury hotels, and iconic landmarks like the USS Midway Museum and San Diego Bayfront.

THE HEADQUARTERS
AT SEAPORT VILLAGE DISTRICT

A man and a woman are standing behind a dining table. The man is wearing a light-colored suit and the woman is wearing a white dress. They are holding hands. On the table is a wedding cake decorated with flowers, several vases of orange and yellow flowers, and bottles of wine. In the background is a large abstract painting with yellow, white, and blue colors.
