Speak to the Event Coordinator about any other entertainment options.

Cancellations, No-Shows, Rescheduling & Minimums

- All cancellations must be sent to the Events Coordinator in writing.
- In the event of a government mandated closure of restaurants (due to war, acts of God, fire, pandemics or other reasons) where The State Line cannot legally host your event, The State Line will work with the private event host to reschedule for a future date or alternative event options, i.e. offsite catering/ delivery (no rebooking fee applied). If the private event host is unable to reschedule or work with The State Line on other event options then The State Line will waive 50% cancellation fees, return deposits (less 10% credit card processing fees) and will return the room rental fees in the form of a State Line Gift Card without expiration (less 5% credit card processing fee). This scenario is if and only if there is a government mandated closure of restaurants.
- Private event host must give 60 or more days before their event date with written notice if they wish to cancel their event. If cancellation occurs 60 days or more before the event, a full refund of the room fee will be returned to host in the form of a gift card (less 5% credit card fees) and any deposits will be returned less 10% credit card fees.
- If the private event host cancels within the window of 31 – 59 days before the event date then there will not be a refund to private event host of the room fees and the 25% deposit will be kept by The State Line.
- If Private Event host cancels less than 30 days before their event date then there will not be a refund to private event host of the room fees and there will not be a refund of the 50% deposit.

Cancellations, No-Shows, Rescheduling & Minimums (Continued)

- Exception: All December bookings are considered final after October 1st and no room fees or deposits will be refunded on December Bookings if there was a cancellation.
- If the party does not show up on the date of the event, The State Line will keep the room fees, 50% deposit and additionally will charge the credit card on file 22% of the deposit amount as gratuity for the event staff.
- If your private event must be rescheduled less than 60 days before your event, our event coordinator will do their absolute best to work with you to find a new date and time, however with peak seasons there may be very little availability. A new contract will be required to be signed with a new date booking.
- We allow a 5 person leeway for guest no-shows. This means that if more than 5 of your confirmed guests do not show up, the host will be charged for all guests less the 5 guest leeway. Your final headcount is due 48 hours prior to your event. If the event host does not confirm final headcount 48 hours in advance, we will hold event host to the most recently estimated headcount or the headcount denoted on the booking form.
- The credit card on file will be charged if damages requiring repair or replacement occur as a result of host or guest carelessness. This includes charges for any missing or broken pieces to lawn games.
- If you cancel properly and we are reimbursing you for your rental fees and/ or deposits. We will return the deposit monies less 10% credit card fees that we incurred through the charge and return of the monies. The room fees will only be returned in the form of a State Line gift card without expiration less the 5% credit card processing fee.
