A note from your wedding planner,
Kylie Sammond

Hello and congratulations on your engagement! I'm Kylie, a certified and award winning wedding planner! I've been planning weddings and events for over a decade now. After moving from Arizona, I decided to finally bloom into my own planning firm, and here we are!

With my wedding planning approach, I will get to know you on the same level as your friends and family, which will allow me to put together the ultimate wedding to tell your personal love story while tailoring the unique touches you want to make a statement at your wedding. It wouldn't be surprising if we keep in touch after your big day - love stories don't end after you say "I do"!

This is a delicate, and quick time for you and I'm sure your both delighted but also a bit nervous about planning your wedding - but be assured that I am here for you and will make sure your wedding is handled with love and care! I look forward to hearing about your story and assisting you through the next chapter!

VALUES

WEDDINGS THAT TELL STORIES

It's your day and you deserve to have your story told. By getting to know you, we will find the perfect blend of tradition and your personal taste.

SAVING COUPLES TIME

Couples hire a wedding planner because they are busy and don't have hundreds of hours to spend planning. The Sammond expertise saves couples time finding vendors and planning details.

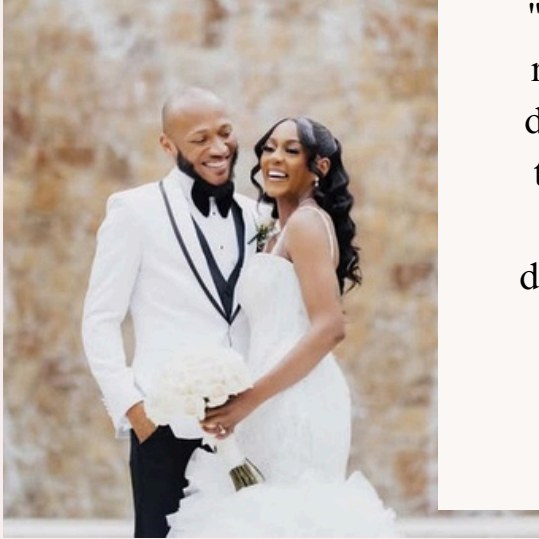

LEAVING COUPLES AT EASE

Your wedding day should be one of the most memorable days of your life. Leave the logistics to your wedding pros, so you can focus on your engagement festivities and wedding fun!

TOP-NOTCH COMMUNICATION

A perfectly planned wedding involves communication, communication, communication! Whether it's with you or your other vendors, I will be sure everything is well communicated and everyone is on the same page on your special day.

KIND WORDS

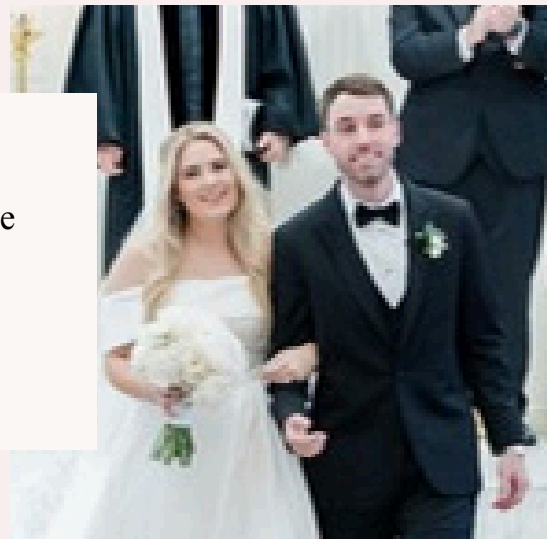

"I have been completely overwhelmed and stumped regarding the design/decor elements for our special day. In just our first consultation she has helped me to select items that will help to elevate my wedding but also has helped me to feel some relief in this design process. I am feeling so much more confident that our special day will look as great as we had hoped it to!"

KAHYAH

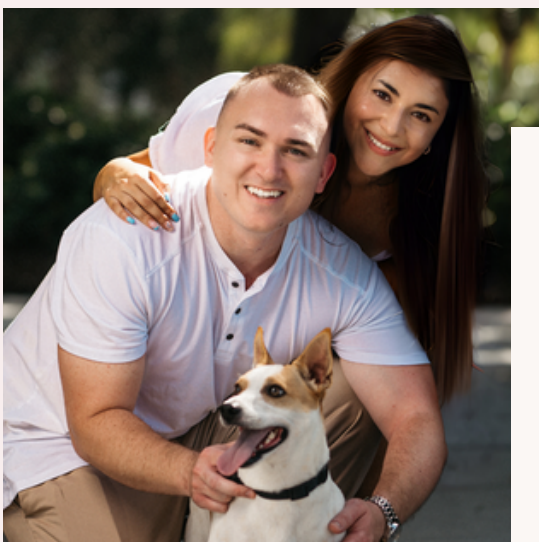

"Everything from our wedding was beyond our expectations, and it was everything we could have hoped for and more."

JENNIFER

"Kylie's communication from the beginning was top notch. We can't thank Kylie enough for helping our big day go so smoothly. Most of all, we appreciate that her team was professional, kept to the time schedule, and stayed calm no matter what issues came up."
