Hi There!

I am so excited to work with you and learn more about your event! Hopefully by the time you're done reading through our services, you'll have a sense of what you'd be most interested in. All of our quotes are custom and we will try our best to work within your budget to create something that is individual to your needs.

You can choose from our bars, services, and any additional add-ons to customize your event.

Once you select your package options, head back to your email to book a quick consultation call to discuss your event further and answer any questions you, or I, may have.

From there I'll send you over a custom quote with everything you'll need for a perfect bar for your upcoming celebration.

Looking forward to working with you!

x Kristine Mannino
