Hello

Together, we are Rudy and Marta – an Orlando-based husband and wife photography duo who loves to travel the world in order to tell your love story.

We believe relationships are like onions. You slowly must peel away the layers until you reach the center, the core, the heart of everything that matters. It's in these moments and through deeper, heartfelt questions that you can remember exactly when, why, and how you fell in love. It's then that you will rediscover your story all over again.

When was the first moment when you thought, "This is the person I'm going to marry?" How did you feel when you realized your answer to, "I fell in love with you because..." was tinged with a new type of meaning you never thought possible.

When you turn to her and detail the date when you knew she was the one before you asked her to marry you; when you look at him and recount a moment so simple, so filled with everyday things that you realized "this is what our forever will look like together", know we will frame that moment in time just for you.

We capture smiles so wide they flood a new bright light into your eyes during your engagement session. We capture the slight blushes as he whispers in your ear during your first look. We capture the moments when you're simply overcome as she walks down the aisle. We photograph your story – the candid moments that aren't posed because you're simply living them. We want you to look back and remember that's what he, that's what she, was saying in a place so special to you as you recount your memories again and again to each other, to your friends, and to your family.

Your wedding is filled with moments, but those moments have a story unique to you waiting to be told. We want you to rediscover your story, layer by layer, because yours is the one that matters. It's not about us. It's about you for us. And, we want you to feel emboldened to allow us to share how we see you and your love from behind our lens.

XOXO,

Rudy & Marta

Rudy and Marta are the best photographers ever! Not only are they great at capturing photographs, and they are incredibly nice and sweet people. My husband and I both agreed that having them as our photographers for our wedding was one of the best choices we ever made. We felt like we had two good friends with us while also taking pictures.

Travel fees might apply for sessions outside of Orlando, FL.

Rudy and Marta are so great to work with - they are kind, funny, and can make even unphotogenic people (like us) look good. They are professional, courteous, and so creative. We couldn't have asked for better photographers and photos!

FOUR SEASONS RESORT

There is no other way to put it. We've always felt that way and have had plenty of friends in the LGBTQ community. When Marriage Equality was finally granted, we were stoked for all of our friends. Orlando Gay Weddings are just another way to celebrate love in the community. We are Orlando Strong!

Marriage is a milestone in a relationship that should be shared by all. It is truly a magnificent moment when two people decide to commit themselves for the rest of their lives. Our photography approach focuses on your journey to that milestone. That approach fits beautifully with the LGBTQ community and its journey towards marriage equality.

Love is love!
