Additional Notes:

Clients are responsible for depositing all throw-away material into provided wastebaskets, and general clean up. If you include catering, you must also include their service staff or hire independent service staff to make sure chafing dishes are emptied, extra food is packed into take away containers, and all liquids are properly emptied into dump buckets. If you rent our table settings, you must hire service staff to wipe off plates and flatware and empty goblets, before they're returned to our staff to prep for the next event. We do not provide bussing of the tables or service staff. Cake cutting service is your responsibility, however, we will save the box from the bakery for any leftovers. We will remove the garbage following your event; all boxes must be broken down if you're leaving those behind.

Our staff remains onsite throughout the duration of your event to make sure things run smoothly. Please refer to our website for suggestions on additional service staff for your event; www.elementspreserved.com/venue

In-person tours and consultations are held by appointment.
