YOUR WEDDING AT THE NEW YORK BOTANICAL GARDEN

Surrounded by 250 acres of breathtaking gardens, historic architecture, and ever changing seasonal landscapes, the New York Botanical Garden offers one of the most extraordinary settings for a wedding in New York City. Whether exchanging vows beneath a canopy of trees or celebrating with family and friends in one of the Garden's elegant event spaces, every wedding is immersed in natural beauty and timeless romance.

As the Garden's exclusive catering and events partner, CxRA brings each celebration to life with restaurant inspired cuisine, gracious hospitality, thoughtful design, and impeccable service. Born from the world of celebrated restaurants and part of the Restaurant Associates family, we create unforgettable experiences where exceptional food, personalized details, and seamless execution come together in one truly remarkable destination.

STONE MILL

Nestled within the heart of the New York Botanical Garden, Stone Mill is a one of a kind wedding venue where historic character meets timeless romance. Just steps from the iconic Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden, the beautifully restored stone mill is surrounded by lush gardens, tranquil waterways, and breathtaking seasonal landscapes.

During peak bloom, thousands of fragrant roses create an unforgettable backdrop for ceremonies, portraits, and quiet moments together. Whether celebrating beneath the trees or inside the warmth of the historic mill, your wedding is immersed in the natural beauty and timeless elegance of one of New York's most celebrated botanical gardens.
