Frequently Asked Questions

What is a room block?

When you have your wedding at Winter Park Mountain Lodge, the hotel will set aside a certain number of hotel rooms at a set rate for your guests to reserve over your wedding weekend dates based on your needs and the hotel's availability. This must be contracted through a letter of intent signed by both the couple and the hotel, with a minimum guarantee of 10 guestrooms. A booking link with a discount may also be available.

Am I responsible for any unused rooms in our block?

Yes, you are required to hit the minimum of 10 guest rooms. Once you have hit the minimum, you are not financially responsible for any additional unused rooms. We will release these rooms one month prior to the wedding weekend at your cut-off date.

What is a cut-off date?

This is the date at which we release any unused rooms back into our general inventory and your group rate is no longer available. Guests may continue to book hotel rooms; however, they will receive whatever rate the hotel is offering the general public.

What if I need to stay on a day outside of our blocked dates?

Your wedding block will include a discounted rate 3 days prior, and 3 days post your wedding date, some restrictions may apply. Please contact us directly to discuss a discounted rate for days outside of your contracted block. We cannot guarantee any specific discounted rate for these days but are happy to offer a discount off our regular selling price. These discounts are determined based upon availability and on a case-by-case basis.

What if we need more than the contracted rooms per night?

Once you have reserved the original rooms, we may add additional rooms based on the hotel's availability. Rates subject to change.

What if my guests want to book upgraded room types?

They are welcome to call the hotel directly at 970-726-4211 to discuss rates for upgraded room types.

What are the check-in and check-out times?

Check-in begins at 4PM and check-out is at 11AM.

Can the front desk hand out gift bags?

Yes! The front desk will hand out gift bags to those guests booked in your block at check-in for a fee of $3 per bag. Delivery of gift bags to guest rooms is available for $5 per bag as well.

Can we check-in early because we need to get ready? Can we have a late check-out?

Early check-in and late check-out is based upon availability. If we are able to accommodate these requests, we absolutely will but we cannot guarantee them.

Is the hotel pet friendly?

Yes! Your furry friend is welcome for a $75.00 fee per stay for the first pet, $15.00 each additional pet.
